

a regional

strategic vision

for public transportation serving
southwestern pennsylvania

March 2006

ALLEGHENY ARMSTRONG BEAVER BUTLER FAYETTE GREENE INDIANA LAWRENCE WASHINGTON WESTMORELAND

a regional
strategic vision
for public transportation serving
southwestern pennsylvania

Prepared for

Southwestern Pennsylvania Commission
The Heinz Endowments

Regional Transit Operators:

- >>> Port Authority of Allegheny County
- >>> Beaver County Transit Authority
- >>> Butler Township City
Joint Municipal Transit Authority
- >>> Fayette Area Coordinated Transit
- >>> Indiana County Transit Authority
- >>> Mid-County Transit Authority
- >>> Mid-Mon Valley Transit Authority
- >>> New Castle Area Transit Authority
- >>> City of Washington (GG&C Bus Co, Inc)
- >>> Westmoreland County Transit Authority

City of Pittsburgh

Steel Industry Heritage Corporation

Port of Pittsburgh Commission

Prepared by

DMJM Harris

Urban Design Associates

Planning Innovations, Inc.

Manuel Padron & Associates

Mizerak Bowers

AECOM Consulting

BRW URS

March 2006

table of contents

table of contents 2

foreword 4

section a:

executive summary 8

reflecting on our assets 10

imagining the possibilities 11

basic principles that emerged 12

what kind of region do we want? 13

the public transportation scenarios 14

the vision: a comprehensive transit concept for the ten-county region 15

making the most of our assets 17

conceptual finance plan 19

management structure 20

focusing on our future 21

next steps/immediate challenges 22

section b:

our region 24

overview: the southwestern pennsylvania region 26

from steel town to knowledge town 27

our region, one region 28

our region, a work in progress 35

regional visions from around the country 37

common themes 39

transit now 41

section c:

our challenges 42

overview: managing growth, providing transportation 44

projections and assumptions 45

the primary challenges 46

historic development of land use and transportation 47

regional form/development challenges 50

transportation challenges 51

our choices, decisions, and options:
trend or focused 52

why these decisions are critical 53

section d:
outreach and collaboration –
a public process 56

overview: understanding and exploring through
a public process 57
themes and goals 59
outreach activities: additional details 61 charrette results: clairton 66 charrette results: cranberry township 68 lessons learned, themes, and application to the region 70

section e:
developing the public
transportation vision 72

overview: two possible visions 73 understanding the dynamics of the region 75 building blocks of regional form 77 building blocks of public transportation 81
regional travel 84
trend or focused growth: our choices, our future 85
the choices illustrated: selected examples 96 making the right choice: evaluation 99
enhancing the vision:
making the most of our assets 106
the transit vision and other regionally significant transportation initiatives 111

section f:
the public transportation vision
and next steps 120

overview: the planning and
project development process 121 development tools 124
other strategies 128
transit vision investments in the ten-county region 131 financing the transit vision 135
next steps: advancing transit investments, setting local priorities, attracting partners 144