

With fuel prices at an all time high, taking public transportation is a cost effective and environmentally friendly way to get around.

If you are traveling outside Allegheny County, this brochure is meant to help you understand how to use public transportation to get you to your destination.

TRAVELING BY BUS

If you live in the Southwestern Pennsylvania region, there may be a bus company or transit agency that serves your community and connects with Port Authority service to and from Downtown Pittsburgh and Oakland.

The following is a list of agencies with services connecting to Port Authority:

Beaver County

Beaver County Transit Authority
724.728.8600
www.bcta.com

Butler County and Grove City, PA

Myers Coach Lines
724.733.1045
www.myerscoachlines.com

Charleroi and California, PA

Mid-Mon Valley Transit Authority
724.489.0880
www.mmvta.com

Fayette County – Uniontown, PA

Fayette Area Coordinated Transit
1.800.321.RIDE (7433)
www.factbus.com

New Castle, PA

New Castle Transit
724.654.3130
www.newcastletransit.org

Washington County

Washington County Transit
724.222.2320
www.ggcbusride.com

Westmoreland County

Westmoreland County Transit Authority
1.800.221.9282
www.westmorelandtransit.com

All regional buses serve Penn Station on Port Authority's East Busway in Downtown Pittsburgh.

Beaver County, Mid-Mon Valley, Fayette County, and Washington County transit authorities operate to and from Downtown Pittsburgh. Convenient connections to Oakland are available via Port Authority's 61 and 71 series buses along Fifth Avenue in Downtown.

Butler County and New Castle transit authorities also operate Downtown. Convenient morning connections to Oakland are available via Port Authority route 100 West Busway-All Stops at East Busway Penn Station Stop 'A.' Midday and afternoon service to and from Oakland is available via 61 and 71 series buses on Fifth Avenue in Downtown.

Direct service to and from Downtown Pittsburgh and Oakland from Westmoreland County is available throughout the day, please contact Westmoreland County Transit Authority for more information.

If these bus companies do not provide service to your area, you may contact Greyhound, Fullington Trailways, or Mountain Line for more extensive service around the Southwestern Pennsylvania region. For more information, contact Greyhound at 1.800.231.2222 or www.greyhound.com.

TRAVELING BY TRAIN

Amtrak provides service between Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, and New York City via the Keystone/Pennsylvanian. Trains depart Pittsburgh at *7:20 a.m. Monday through Saturday and *1:20 p.m. on Sundays.

Train service between Pittsburgh, Cleveland, and Chicago are provided by Amtrak's westbound Capitol Limited. Trains depart daily from Pittsburgh at *11:55 p.m.

Train service between Pittsburgh and Washington D.C., is provided by Amtrak's eastbound Capitol Limited. Trains depart daily from Pittsburgh at *5:45 a.m.

* Times are subject to change. For more information, contact Amtrak at 1.800.USA.RAIL (1.800.827.7245) or www.amtrak.com

GETTING TO THE STATION

Greyhound will begin operations from the new Grant Street Transportation Center starting September 2008. The new center is located at the intersection of Liberty Avenue and 11th Street in Downtown Pittsburgh.

The Amtrak Station is located directly across Liberty Avenue from the Grant Street Transportation Center.

Port Authority's East Busway Penn Station is located to the right of the Amtrak Station. Most regional buses will drop off at Stop 'A' and pick up at Stop 'C' at Penn Station. Westmoreland Transit buses will drop off at Stop 'C' and pick up at Stop 'A.'

To get to these locations from Oakland, you may take a Port Authority bus Downtown from any inbound stop along Forbes Avenue near CMU or any inbound stop along Fifth Avenue near Pitt and Carlow universities.

After boarding your bus in Oakland, see the instructions below for walking directions for the given routes.

61A-61B-61C-61D-61F-500

Get off on Sixth Avenue at Bigelow Square, continue down Sixth Avenue to Grant Street, turn right on Grant Street and continue north on Grant Street to the transportation center, Amtrak, or East Busway Penn Station.

71A-71C-71D

Get off on Forbes Avenue at Grant Street, and walk north on Grant Street to the transportation center, Amtrak, or East Busway Penn Station.

If you want to get to any of these stations from any other area in the region, you may take any Port Authority bus or 'T' into Downtown and simply walk north on Grant Street or Liberty Avenue.

Please see the map on the opposite side for additional assistance.

Connection between Port Authority services and regional services.

Revised 10/08

TRAVELING BY PLANE

Port Authority provides frequent bus service between Oakland, Downtown Pittsburgh, Robinson Towne Center and the Pittsburgh International Airport via 28X Airport Flyer.

28X starts at Forbes and Morewood avenues near CMU in Oakland and picks up at all inbound stops along Forbes Avenue from Morewood Avenue to Dithridge Street and Fifth Avenue from Tennyson Avenue to Craft Avenue.

Downtown 28X bus stops are located on Seventh Avenue at Smithfield Street and along Liberty Avenue at Tito Way, Fifth Avenue, and the Hilton Hotel.

28X operates seven days a week and departs Oakland and Downtown Pittsburgh approximately every 30 minutes. Travel time to the Airport from Oakland is approximately one hour. Travel time from Downtown Pittsburgh to the Airport is approximately 40 minutes.

For more information, please obtain a 28X timetable or visit us on the Web at www.PortAuthority.org.

Commuting or Traveling?

Let us help.

Port Authority