

PORT AUTHORITY SERVICE FOR 42ND ANNUAL RICHARD S. CALIGUIRI CITY OF PITTSBURGH GREAT RACE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (Wednesday, September 25, 2019) - More than 30 Port Authority bus routes will be detoured this weekend for the 42nd Annual Richard S. Caliguiri City of Pittsburgh Great Race and related events.

On Saturday, September 28, detours will last from about 10 a.m. until noon, and will impact buses in and near Point State Park.

On Sunday, September 29, most detours will begin at the start of service and last until about 1 p.m. The detours on Sunday will primarily impact riders in the Downtown, Uptown, Oakland and Squirrel Hill areas.

Stop changes for each route are available at PortAuthority.org/greatrace. If a bus route is not listed, it is not affected.

On Sunday, two temporary special bus routes will operate during the race, the 5K and 10K, to provide service between Downtown and Oakland, and Downtown and Squirrel Hill, respectively.
